

Have A Little Faith

Rockapella

Believe in you, believe in me
The world it ain't your enemy.

Times were, time was taken just day by day
Summer sun was all we'd need
Now the sunshine shines and you run the other way
So in love with all your speed

Have a little faith, have a little faith in me
I know where you need to be, you gotta have a little faith
Take a little time, take a little time to see
With me is where you need to be, you gotta take a little time.

Days were, days were savored, you'd live your life in one
Never used to wonder why
Now it's next week, next month, I'll see you on the run
Squeeze me in 'round next July.

You ain't really living when you live life by the textbook
No, you ain't making music when you know what note is next.
Have some faith.

Believe in you, believe in me
The world it ain't your enemy.

Fifty Junes from now, well I wonder how you'll feel
Will you still be on the run
From the nursing home in your wheelchair chasing deals
'Til the wheeling-dealing's done.

Believe in you, believe in me
The world it ain't your enemy.

Have some Faith, some faith
