

Runaway

Rockapella

Runaway, you don't have to go home
Baby stay, don't you leave me alone
We'll find a better world
Oh who cares what people say?
Kiss the bad times goodbye, runaway girl

On the dirty city streets
In your tattered jeans
Like an angel lost in the wilderness
When our eyes met I knew
My mind was set on you
My poor heart was beating me half to death

Whoa,
Runaway, girl, you don't have to go home
Baby stay, don't you leave me alone
We'll find a better world
Oh who cares what people say?
Kiss the bad times goodbye, runaway girl

(melodic interlude)

I could leave this heartless town
There's nothing stopping me
Go with you as far as we could go
It's a cold and lonely world
Need you to hold me girl
Baby, you're no longer on your own

Dont run away,
Girl, you don't have to go home
Baby stay, don't you leave me alone
We'll find a better world
Oh who cares what people say?
(cares what people say)
Kiss the bad times goodbye, runaway girl
(what they say, what they say)
Runaway girl
Kiss the bad times goodbye

Runaway
