[Speaking:]

Hey Rockie, I kinda forget you wouldn't answer
One of your videos just popped up on my TV screen And really wish you were standing right here in front of me
But you're always so busy, you're always on tour And niggas out here notice that, they always tryna get at me
But I ain't never going 'cause I know you will come back for me
But if you find the time give me a call back, It's your Chicago girl, bye.
