

Controlled Substance

Rocko

Controlled substance

Why you call it controlled substance?

I can't escape it

Is there where I'm at?

And if I walk away I'll be running back

I gave away, I charge street albums

I can't even call it [?]

30 years and you all touched it

I guarantee I will make a profit from it

Wherever I put my hands on

Street profit has it's cargo the way I see it

You saw it, I still see it, bitch

Shinning like the biggest star in the sky

I ain't paid for it

You should get the fuck on

My lyrics just use to do that shit

Why are you listening to my poems?

I'm a poet

Make them say yes

Walk along and put the [?]

Pants, PR, PSS

Giovanni really getting money

VH 1 on my line heavy

I sold them already

I've been on TV

I said, let's get it

I was just thinking how a nigga can have such an old soul

[?] 41 millimeter president

You're talkin' the roll

I play by the rolls

Bitch who rolls

Lookin' like I'm all alone

They live through me

They love me, they see me

They believe me

I don't fuck around

I'm authentic

Damn bitches, looking forward for laying

Concrete jungle mentality

Yeah, nigga, ain't no criminal after me

This guy covered my eyes

You can't see me, I'm under my disguise

I've been shot at, I've been ran over

Probably that's why I jump on the Porsche

Probably that's why I'm the beast on the beat

I wanna be a historian

[?] so I could free my nigga Jay Ross

I swear I could do that shit

We built a solid foundation

Can I make a wish?

I said I would go to school for Cosmetology

I totally switched to Criminology

She got a free ride to get my niggaz out

My shit drippin'

I know you all don't need this much substance

This beat is drippin'

My bad, I just felt like rhyming, you know what I'm saying?
You what I mean?
You think it's all swagger? My charisma
You know what I'm saying?
Yeah, they want this stuff all day
No boy is bigger than that shit
You know what I mean?
I'm feeling like Moses sometimes
You know what I'm saying?
Lot of people live through me
You know what I'm sayin'?
That's why it's called controlled substance
