

Separate Ways

Rod Stewart

Ooh, ooh, ooh

You were my friend, you were my lover
We had the best of one another
Some people choose to never see the sign, oh no
Was I too weak? Or too demanding?
Could you have been more understanding?
I run it through my mind a thousand times
Yes, I have

Even though we're going our separate ways
You should know for all of my nights and my days
I loved you so
Even though we got to grow
Separate ways
Separate ways

I gave it all when I was with you
You wanted more than I could give you
Truth is, I could not be more than I had

Yes, it's lonely growing our separate ways
You should know for all of my nights and my days
You're in my heart
But for now, we'll just go our separate ways
(So much about you I can't forget)
Separate ways
(I can't believe that it's over, yeah)
I can't pretend I've no regrets (No regrets)

Yes, it's lonely growing our separate ways
You should know for all of my nights and my days
I loved you so (I loved you so)
But for now, we'll just go our separate ways
Oh yeah (Baby)
Separate ways
Oh yeah
Separate ways

You go your way, can't forget
I refused to believe it's over yet
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
(Going our separate ways)
(Going our separate ways)
Bye, bye, bye
(Our separate ways)
(Our separate ways)
(Our separate ways)
Ooh, ooh, ooh
(Our separate ways)
