

Blame On You

Rod Wave

(Pipe that shit up TnT)
(EVRGRN with the heat, yeah)
Look, look, look

Wanna put the blame on me, but the blame on you (You know the blame on you)
You did me wrong, girl, shame on you (Shame on you)
Had to leave ya 'lone, what it came down to
How you change on me? I wouldn't change on you
Goodbye, so long, farewell
It ain't a loss, it's just a lesson and a story to tell
It's just a blessing in disguise, I know the story so well

Once upon a time, it was a youngin in that bottom (Youngin that bottom)
Running up so slimy, cutthroat, couldn't have it (Cutthroat)
Hit a lick all by myself, swear I don't need nobody (Don't need nobody)
Reach up on my bag, wrong move, know we shot him
Juvenile detention for a minute going crazy (We going crazy)
Guarding on my heart, would you please come and save me (Save me)
Promise I'ma stay up out the way, I'ma be patient (Gotta be patient)
Promise I'ma chase these rapper dreams that you gave me (The ones you gave me)
You had your mama, had your boss, but all I had was you
Fresh out of high school, your love was all I ever knew
Got dropped off in front of a corner, packed your shit, I still remember
Broker than a bitch starin' at the apartment ceiling
Heart broker than bitch, uncle D came to get me
HG3 dropped, we was so far from the city (Yeah)
Knew about your secret love, but I didn't break a sweat
'Cause he's a first class flight and I'm a private jet (Yeah)

Wanna put the blame on me, but the blame on you (You know the blame on you)
You did me wrong, girl, shame on you (Shame on you)
Had to leave ya 'lone, what it came down to
How you change on me? I wouldn't change on you
Goodbye, so long, farewell
It ain't a loss, it's just a lesson and a story to tell
It's just a blessing in disguise, I know the story so well
Wanna put the blame on me, but the blame on you (You know the blame on you)
You did me wrong, such shame on you (Shame on you)
Had to leave ya 'lone, what it came down to

How you change on me? I wouldn't change on you
Goodbye, so long, farewell
It ain't a loss, it's just a lesson and a story to tell
It's just a blessing in disguise, I know the story so well
