

I been like that too, like
I could watch the fuckin' sun come up
Never sleep, like a lil' kid

As nights turn into days
I wonder why things won't change
More I stay, the more it hurts
Before it gets better it's gon' get worse
Through all of the issues and all of the pain
I find happiness again
Through all of the issues and all of the pain
They say sun shines after it rains
So as nights turn into days
I wanna fly away
(Yeah)

While in my sprinter van I'm starin' at the cars passin'
Wonderin' if it's enough space for me in Thug's Mansion
Ay, fuck a rap nigga, fuck a feature, feel my life was harder
I went and got it out the mud, that's on my mama's daughters
Don't get along with none of these niggas, get that from my father
You know yo' love make my heart race like a Daytona Charger
I pour up pints of lean, I'm tryna sleep away my problems
But I can't get no sleep, I'm up thinkin' 'bout how to solve 'em
He havin' lucid dreams, I heard he fell in love with perkys
I lost you, I lost my love, my heart didn't have a purpose
But when you left it taught me how the love is finally workin'
You should've stayed and waited 'cause you made a better person
Wake up in the mornin' and I ask myself
"Is life worth livin', should I blast myself?"
Don't wanna be a number but then sometimes...
I wonder do all of this rain come with sunshine?
(Yeah)

As nights turn into days
I wonder why things won't change
The more I stay, the more it hurts
Before it gets better it's gon' get worse
Through all of the issues and all of the pain
I find happiness again
Through all of the issues and all of the pain
They say sun shines after it rains
So as nights turn into days
I wanna fly away
(Yeah)
