

Gambling

Rod Wave

Ay
Ay
Ay
Ay

I'm in the middle of the projects with my gun in my hand
Most don't have a choice, so we choose to take a chance
Gambling
Whatchu gon' do when it's time to feed yo family
You gon' go handle it by gambling
We gambling, gambling, gambling, gambling
Ay
It's hard to focus on your grind
When you got everything on the line
We gambling

I'm in the projects with all of my young niggas
These niggas hungry, and they ready to squeeze triggers
I'm all about these dollars
I said I'm all about these dollars

Them crackers can't distract me
Now we running out the back
I was slidin' through the city with a semi in my lap
Niggas steady want me dead I got a semi in my lap
Run up on me if you want
Momma's son ain't coming back

Tryna get me some money, but this shit dangerous
Niggas only want problems, tryna bang at us
But they know how we coming, and they know I'm the dumbest
With the felon loaded cheese
I'm all 'bout that money

I'm on the block with the team
With lobs and Kareem
We out here chasing this green
Better yet chasing dreams
You can try to stop our sun if you want to Hop out I'll just tell you what I'm gon to

Slide down and (Inaudible)
Hop out with the Glock, and let them shells go
I'll probably get caught and catch your elbows
Spend the rest of my life by killing hoes

We fucking and dumping on any nigga riding
Cuz where I'm from these niggas violent
Shoot first or you dying
Hear them sirens, somebody dead
Left him dead with a bullet inside his head

It's consequences when you gambling you better not cramp up
Hope I hit 7's (Ding, Ding, Ding, Ding) Jackpot
Walk about in my shoes I hear gambling
Whatchu willing to do
Feed yo family

And you lose
Out here and you lose and you lose
But until then I'ma keep grinding and surviving

I'm in the middle of the projects with my gun in my hand
Most don't have a choice, so we choose to take a chance
Gambling
Whatchu gon' do when it's time to feed yo family
You gon' go handle it by gambling
We gambling, gambling, gambling, gambling
Ay
It's hard to focus on your grind
When you got everything on the line
We gambling
