Rod Wave

(Ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, ayy, that's probably Tago)
(Goddamn, BJ with another one)

Say when love comes around naturally
You'll miss it, my friend, if you blink
Now you're just a memory
Tried to tell you, but now you just remember me
I was tryna let you know, yeah, uh
I was tryna let you know, yeah
I was tryna let you know, woah
I was tryna let you know
'Fore I let you go, woah, yeah

I was tryna hold on, hold on to ease the pain
But why hold on if I wasn't ready to change?
And now you're just a memory
Don't mistake my cries for cries of sympathy
I was just so young, so young, didn't know the difference
Mama said, "Don't make excuses, son, 'cause that'll never fix it"
Mama said, "Just take your losses, son, and then grow with it"
Mama said, "Just next time you get this far, do it different"
And I tried to do it different when I fell in love
But sittin' waitin' on karma had me scared enough
Like this time, no, next time, it'll be fair enough
In the inside, I'm tearing up

Say when love comes around naturally
You'll miss it, my friend, if you blink
Now you're just a memory
Tried to tell you, but now you just remember me
I was tryna let you know, yeah, uh
I was tryna let you know, yeah
I was tryna let you know, woah
I was tryna let you know
'Fore I let you go, woah (Luca Brasi), yeah

I still think about you, 'cause I was your first
First real one that ever was Hurt still come when not on drugs
Love to see you smile, got you a purse from out the dirt
And the work still come from out the slums
You from my turf, I'm the first real one you ever loved
And I been lookin' for you inside somebody else
It been so hard to find
Room full of crowded people, I feel lost sometimes
Know you in a relationship, but still, I gotta call sometimes
I was just thinking about you, I tapped your line, you crossed my mind

Say when love comes around naturally
You'll miss it, my friend, if you blink
Now you're just a memory
Tried to tell you, but now you just remember me
I was tryna let you know, yeah, uh
I was tryna let you know, yeah
I was tryna let you know, woah
I was tryna let you know
'Fore I let you go, woah, yeah
