

Weight On My Shoulders

Rod Wave

Uh-uh
Yeah, yeah yeah yeah
Go Grizz
Yeah
Look, look
Winners Circle

Just got a text from my ex, she say that she gettin' colder
Baby, it's all the weight on my shoulders
Maybe it's all the weight on my shoulder
You know pain turn birds, just got a vulture
Just got a call from my mama, she told me it's drama, yeah
She said maybe you'll understand when you're older
Baby, you'll understand when you're older
Maybe I'll understand when I'm older

I ain't steppin' in the club, can't bring my rod in this bitch
Even though it's always love with Lil' Rod in this bitch
Just turned my headache to my ex 'cause she love startin' some shit
Ain't got time for ups and downs and that arguing shit
They left lil' Marcus at the light for that robbery shit
Tryna live a better life actually cost him his shit
Took him from his wife, took him from his family
Dear Mom, I'm sorry, I finally understand it
My life a movie right now, I'm winning, love
All I wanted was for you to be with me, love
But you done started some shit, I'ma finish, love
But you done started some shit so we're finished, love

Just got a text from my ex, she say that she gettin' colder
Baby, it's all the weight on my shoulders
Maybe it's all the weight on my shoulder
You know pain turn birds, just got a vulture
Just got a call from my mama, she told me it's drama, yeah
She said maybe you'll understand when you're older
Baby, you'll understand when you're older
Maybe I'll understand when I'm older

Yeah, uh
Yeah, dawg, look, look
Yeah, dawg, look
