

My OG Pete told me the goal in life was to have fast money, fast bitches, and fast cars
 But the consequences behind that life is glory
 But all fast things must slow down at some point, or life will force you to stop
 His result was twenty-six years in the federal penitentiary
 I've realized I've lived fast, I wanna take my time
 Time is the most expensive luxury in the world
 It's something you spend and never get back, but you never know how much you have left

They say we gon' be livin' like this for the rest of our life
 They say we gon' be livin' like this for the rest of tonight
 You know they gon' be bangin' this shit for the rest of our lives
 (Lives)
 Live fast and die young
 Live fast and die young
 Live fast and die young
 Ooh, yeah
 Ooh
 Live fast and die young, oh, oh, oh, oh
