

Dumb

Roe Kapara

Can't find the words to make you laugh
Could I make you happy?
Is that too much to ask?
Could I make you smile if I bleed?
Well, that's alright, I'd give up almost anything
I'd give up almost anything

And I can't sleep tonight
Is it worth it just to work to stay alive?

I'll burn myself at the stake
'Cause I'm not perfect ever
Can you put your fist in my face
While I just bite my tongue?
I'm just another mistake
But it won't get much better
Could you put your hands on my brain
And squeeze it till I'm dumb?
I feel so dumb

I let the coffee stain my teeth
I dress my floor up with my old clothes up to my knees
I heard my friends think I'm a freak
Well, that's alright 'cause I'm afraid that I'd agree

And I can't sleep tonight
Is it worth it just to work to stay alive?

I'll burn myself at the stake
'Cause I'm not perfect ever
Can you put your fist in my face
While I bite my tongue?
I'm just another mistake
But it won't get much better
Could you put your hands on my brain
And squeeze it till I'm dumb?
I feel so dumb

I'm plaster in your callous hands
Rip off my tongue when I taste success
Pressure, it's my only plan

It's my decision, I'll make my bed
I'm plaster in your callous hands
Rip off my tongue when I taste success
Pressure, it's my only plan
It's my decision, I'll make my bed

I'll burn myself at the stake
'Cause I'm not perfect ever
Can you put your fist in my face
While I bite my tongue?
I'm just another mistake
But it won't get much better
Could you put your hands on my brain
And squeeze it till I'm dumb?
I feel so dumb
