

Quicksilver Lightning

Roger Daltrey

Lately I feel like I keep losing ground, every day running in place
Tearing around on this merry go round, same rat race
Oh but I get so hungry to break from the pack, shoot for the stars
Throw off these chains that keep holding me back, I'm going far
Oh so far

Lightning
I am lightning
Changing
I am trading these chains for wings
For wings

Time has torn all my defenses apart all I got left now is you
Just when you thought that you knew me by heart, I'm brand new Baby don't ask me questions just hold on real tight, ooh feel me burn
Rising like quicksilver into the night, I finally learned
It's my turn!

Lightning
I am lightning
Changing
I am trading these chains for wings
For wings

There is no limit on dreams
There is no ceiling on Heaven above
There is no telling what one man could do
With love, ooooh with love

Lightning
I am lightning
Changing
I am trading these chains for wings
For wings
