Along Came Mary

Roger Hodgson

Was alone then along came Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries
Was amazed when she stole my thunder filled my world with the ways of wonder

Come away come away with me
Far away where the eyes can't see
Come away to another time
Pardon me if you lose your mind

Who are you now?
Who makes the rules?
Follow your heart and get back
Won't you get back
Oh get back

Was alone then along came Mary
hair of gold and lips like cherries
Was amazed when she stole my thunder
Filled my world with the ways of wonder

Come away come away with me
Far away where the eyes can't see
Come away to another time
Pardon me if you lose your mind
Pardon me if you lose your mind
Pardon me if you lose oh if you lose your mind
