

No Colours

Roger Hodgson

I saw you walking on the street
I wondered if we'd ever meet
You turned to look and then I turned away
I wonder why it has to be that way
Oh I wanna know your name
Sometimes I wonder if everyone's like me
So many wishes - so many dreams
I want to stop I want to talk with you
I'm just not sure if you would want me to
So many faces - so many lives
Sometimes they touch me and I feel so shy
They're all like mirrors that I'm looking through
The more I see the more I think of you
Oh I wanna know your name
I saw you walking on the street today
I wondered if we'd ever meet
I held my breath, I closed my eyes
I stopped and listened as you passed me by
I never saw your face, I never saw your colour
I want to know you but I don't know how
It's such a place of wonder
Oh I wanna know your name
