

Isolation

Roger Taylor

So here we sit - in isolation
We calm our fears - we're marking time
An endless tide - of information
We find our feet - we're doing fine
Just fill your day - in isolation
It's everyone - in every home
It's every man - of every station
We change our ways - we're doing fine

Strange times indeed
Strange times indeed
Strange times indeed

And every child - does what they can
In every house - in every land
So settle back - and see it through
When this all ends - we'll think anew

Strange times indeed
Strange times indeed
Strange times indeed
