

Journey's End

Roger Taylor

In my life, I've always dreamed
In my dreams, I live to fly
And when I fly, I'm flying blind
So many questions, spring to mind
And see the snakes, around the bend
On my way, to journey's end

Around the bend, just out of sight
Around the corner, shines a light
Just out of touch, and out of reach
Beyond all sound, beyond all speech
The curtain falls, but who knows when
Hmm, my journey ends... my journey's end

Fly, like the swallows
That dance through the sky
Fly, into tomorrow
Through the wind, through the fire

Fly, like an eagle
Fly straight, with no fear
Fly, from all sorrows
From all sadness, from all care

Fly...
