

It's So Easy

Roger Whittaker

I was travelling down life's highway,
Finding every stick and stone.
And I believed it travels fast,
Who travels on his own.
And I didn't mind the danger.
And I didn't count the cost.
But when you came into my life,
Then I knew that I was lost.
Yes I did, oh, I did.

It's so easy,
To fall in love with you.
It's so easy,
Such a simple thing to do.
It's so easy,
To fall in love with you.
Till I fell in love with you.
I was wasting my time.

So I lived each hour of every day
And I lived in a dream.
And life was full of noise and lights,
Like rapids in a stream.
And I didn't mind the heartache.
And I didn't mind the pain.
Then you saw that I was dying
And you brought me back again.
Yes you did, yes you did.

It's so easy,
To fall in love with you.
It's so easy,
Such a simple thing to do.
It's so easy,
To fall in love with you.
Till I fell in love with you.
I was wasting my time.

It's so easy,
To fall in love with you.
It's so easy,
Such a simple thing to do.
It's so easy,
To fall in love with you.
Till I fell in love with you.
I was wasting my time.
