

Echo Returns

Róisín Murphy

Be in love, be in love, be in love
Be in love, be in love, be in love with me
Narcissus
Be in love, be in love, be in love
Be in love, be in love, be in love with me
Narcissus
Be in love, be in love, be in love
Be in love, be in love, be in love with me
Narcissus
Be in love, be in love, be in love
Be in love, be in love, be in love with me
Narcissus
Narcissus
Narcissus
Narcissus

...

Rosebud, Narcissus, see me turn into sand
If you fall in love with your reflection you may be damned
But darling, I could teach you to feel and understand
Narcissus, my love, thy love echo
