

The House

Róisín Murphy

So, what do I know of you?
Is that, [?]
Yes
And you're, ah...
A woman
Fuck's sake

So I'm gonna go over it
Over and over again
All over again
In a heart-shaped swimming pool
It's like a honeymoon debut
All over again
And in every senso-cell, ah-ah-ah
I've got a piece of heaven, baby

All I need is you
Ten thousand dreams in Stella Vista
Ooh! Ah-ah
It's psychotropic
You need to hear my system, baby
Where The Horny Horns gonna play forever
Ooh! Hm-hm
Toto, I don't want to be alone
In a psychotropic environ

'Cause this house is holding it
All that loneliness
This place is going insane
It's insane
And I can't explain it
There's been—
Ten thousand dreams in Stella Vista
Ooh!
Hm-hm
It's psycho-reactive

Darling, is this switched up?
The radio?
Fuck's sick

I don't wanna be alone here
This house is our swan song
Toto, alone we stand on Vermilion Sands
With a heart-shaped swimming pool
Toto, alone we stand on Vermilion Sands
You can see the darkness under the blue, we two
Stuck in a honeymoon debut

No, I won't go over it
Over and over again
And again
All over again

'Cause the place is holding it
All that loneliness
This house is going insane (In a heart-shaped)

(All over again) 'Cause the place is holding it
All that loneliness
This house is going insane (In a heart-shaped)
(All over again) It's insane, it's insane

(In a heart-shaped swimming pool)

It's lock me in Darling?! It's [?]
I can't
I can't get out, I can't get out, I can't get out of the house
Where have you gone?
