

Forever

Roky Erickson

Not for a little while
Not for a day
But forever forever forever
One shows one the way
With out one
There would be an empty
Empty space
With one i can see
One's own face
Not for a little while
Not for a day
But forever forever forever
One shows one the way
One is not a style
One is not a fad
One is not a trend
If one makes me smile

And one tells one
We will never end
Not for a little while
Not for a day
But forever forever forever
One shows one the way
One is not lost
One is a game
With one
One has the pleasure as of knowing ones own name
Not for a little while
Not for a day
But forever forever forever
One shows one the way
