

Closer

Rolo Tomassi

Where to begin?
How to fathom this?

An endless beautiful symmetry
Designed to fail, sweet catastrophe
Once lost in the glow
Now I'm the devil you don't know

What's left to lose?
All I want is you
Your patience removed
But all I want is you
Naive to assume
Yet all I want is you
As language concludes
The only way out is through

And all I want is you

What's left to prove?
Once lost in the glow
Now I'm the devil you don't know
