

Fear

Rolo Tomassi

We question logics
Of our behaviour
We keep disguising
Our flaws and failures

We wear the mask
To hide the shame
Against our will
Because this love is labour

Fears eat our dreams
Loveless, we taste grief
Fears eat our dreams
Our flaws betray us all

Are you consumed by this
Are you still trapped in fear
Are you doomed by this
Are you consumed by it

We feel the pressure
It keeps repeating
The fears of doubt
As the tensions building

We wear its chain
Try hide its pain
Against our will
We still hide its trauma

Fears eat our dreams
Love is lost, taste grief
Fears eat our dreams
Our flaws betray us all

Are you consumed by this
Are you consumed by it

Are consumed by fear
And are you trapped in it
Are you consumed by this

No one knows, until it shows

Are you doomed in here
Can you taste the fears
Are consumed by it

No one knows, will it shows
