Let You Go

Romain Virgo

Even though I love you, babe
Even though I love you, baby
I'm gonna let you go
Hey, eeh, eeh

Even though I love you, babe
Even though I love you, baby
I'm gonna let you go – yeah ah

Baby, we rise, but now we're going down
Where did we mess up
Where did we go wrong
We've being together, for four years long
So move if you wanna move on

'Cause now I think it's time to let you go
Though I know I need you more, than you ever know
Girl, I think it's time to let you go
Though I know I love you for evermore, hey

I'm for you, but you're for you
You never love me like I do
Girl, you never had a clue, no way
She keeps telling me every night
Everything would be alright
Now she wanna walk out my life
You're going away

So it's time to let you go
Though I know I need you more, than you ever know
Girl, I think it's time to let you go
Even though I love you for evermore, hey

Girl, I gonna make you leave
Gonna let you keep those keys
Soon you'll be coming back
You'll be begging on your knees
Hey, eeh, eeh
Girl you really let me down
You wanna take me for a clown
If you wanna run around
I'm not gonna run you down

So it's time to let you go
Though I know I need you more, than you ever know
Girl, I think it's time to let you go
Even though I love you for evermore, hey

Hey, eeh, eeh
Hey, eeh, eeh, aah
Hey yeah, hey yeah

Hey, eeh, eeh
Hey, eeh, eeh
Hey, eeh, eeh, aah
Hey yeah

Now I think it's time to let you go
Though I know I need you more, than you ever know
Girl, I think it's time to let you go
Though I know I love you for evermore..
