

Trouble

Romain Virgo

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
Yes, baby

First time that I saw you and looked in your eyes
Should have know it shouldn't come as a surprise
You are, trouble, deep, deep trouble, yes
You had that look on your face
You are with your man but still up in my space
Looking trouble, you are, trouble, hey

Woman, woman, woman
Why didn't I run away from you?
Now you let my woman find out
And she's everywhere looking for me
Tell me, how can I go on if she's looking for me?
Baby, baby, now tell me

You do everything just to get my attention
I'd run away if I know your intention was Trouble, deep, deep trouble
You got that sexy shape, with that small little waist
Everything and more to put any man
In trouble, you are trouble, hey

Woman, woman, woman
Why didn't I run stay from you?
Now you let my woman find out
And she's everywhere looking for me
Tell me, how can I go on if she's looking for me?
Now tell me (tell me)
Now tell me (tell me)
Hey

Why you're blowing up my house phone?
When you know I'm not alone
You turned up at my gate, how did you know this was my home?
Woman, should have listened to my intuition
I should have never let you in
Should have seen it from the very beginning
That this was more than fun and keep it moving
But caught by that sexy shape, that small little waist
You put this man in
Trouble, deep, deep, trouble

You do everything just to get my attention
I'd run away if I'd know your intention was Trouble, deep, deep trouble, hey

Woman, woman, woman
Why didn't I run away from you?
Now you let my woman find out
And she's everywhere looking for me
Tell me, how can I go on if she's looking for me
Tell me, how can I go on if she's looking for me?
Now baby, now baby, hey

Tell me, tell me, tell me
Woman, woman, woman
Where would I go if she's looking for me?
And now baby, my baby, hey
Woo, woo, woo, woo...
You tell me, don't tell me, hey
My baby...
