

Der tote Spielmann

Rome

We love darkness, we wear masks and makeup to be in darkness, it makes us the reasonable creatures we so like to resemble. It is essential that our gesture is beautiful any gesture ought of suffering is beautiful and deserves respect. Even if that gesture remains invisible because it was born in darkness. Your pride must be engulfed in shame in order to obtain glory.