

Der Wolfsmantel

Rome

beware of words and their power to charm
those greedy little men their filthy souls
before all else be armed

...möcht' auch noch die ganze welt uns hören...

remember you're unique
just like anybody else
so don't grow wishbones where the backbone ought to be
before all else be armed

...möcht' auch noch die ganze welt uns hören...

beware of words and their power to disarm like a blind mob eyes like cattle
before all else be armed

...möcht' auch noch die ganze welt uns hören...

just like anybody else

...möcht' auch noch die ganze welt uns hören...

before all else be armed

...möcht' auch noch die ganze welt uns hören...

...möcht' auch noch die ganze welt uns hören...
