

Hunter

Rome

And then she broke my mind
When she told the lie
All but the curse is broken now
And she drew first blood
And she knew me not
Oh, she is housebroken now

Enter my kingdom, child
Always on guard
Enter my kingdom, child
Always your own god

When then she broke my mind
When she told the lie
All but the curse was broken then
And she drew first blood
And she knew me not
Oh, she is housebroken now
