

Weightless

Romy

I know maybe this came out of the blue
Maybe what I'm saying is a little too soon
But it's getting hard to resist
Bending over backwards under my skin
Is this how it feels when something begins?
Every part is weightless

And I didn't believe I deserved to feel
This high up above the ground
And when she looks at me, I hide how I feel
But I think that she's figured it out

I heard someone say that when you know, you know
And that it's okay not to take it slow
'Cause I don't want to grow without her
I was at a party and she was at home
All I really wanted was to be with her alone
It's better with her arms around me

And I didn't believe I deserved to feel
This high up above the ground
And when she looks at me, I hide how I feel
But I think that she's figured it out

I told her
You've surprised me
And I won't take this lightly
'Cause I know what it's like to lose someone
I know it's frightening, but I will try to do the right thing
'Cause I don't want this to go wrong

And I didn't believe I deserved to feel
This high up above the ground
And when she looks at me, I hide how I feel
But I think that she's figured it out
