

(Let Your Glory Fill) This Place

Ron Kenoly

The temple was finished
King Solomon prayed
The people came to see
Was God pleased with this place
Then fire fell from Heaven
The priest could not go in
God's glory was more
Than they could stand
God's glory was more
Than they could stand

Lord may Your glory
Fill this temple here
Today as You did then
May Your presence be
More than we can stand
Lord may Your glory fill
This temple as we
Gather in Your name
May Your glory
Fill this place

This place is more than
Brick and stone
This place will become a home
This place is for the Brokenhearted everywhere
A place that they will find someone
Who cares
Lord in this place
Believers will agree
In this place
We'll stand in unity
In this place
As we gather around Your Throne
Lord come and make this place
Make it Your home

Lord let Your glory
Fill this place
