

Bad Intentions

Ron Pope

Well I walked through the desert stead of taking the road
Less traveled I decided I had someplace to go
You look better in this light to me than ever before
I would apologize but you don't wanna hear it no more
I been resigned for a while but I'm slurring my words
Sticks stones rocks and bullets there ain't nothing that works
I been down by the corner just waiting my turn
But the bus ain't even runnin' best return in reverse

I got the bad intentions
But I got a good heart
Yes I got the wrong directions
So I been lost from the start
And if you need redemption
You're barking in the wrong backyard
Yes I got the bad bad intentions
And a good good heart

Wait a second I remembered what I wanted to say
No, I lost it never mind, I'm out of reasons to stay
I'll just finish up my drink and then I'll hop on the train
Wait a second, I remembered what I wanted to say

I got the bad intentions
But I got a good heart
Yes I got the wrong directions
So I been lost from the start
And if you need redemption
You're barking in the wrong backyard
Yes I got the bad, bad intentions
And a good good heart

I got the bad intentions
But I got a good heart
Yes I got the wrong directions
So I been lost from the start
And if you need redemption
You're barking in the wrong backyard
Yes I got the bad bad intentions
And a good good heart
Yes I got the bad bad intentions
And a good good heart

Oh yes I got bad intentions but a
Good good heart
