

Chasing Angels

Ron Pope

You'd like to know if I got more to lose
But I am not sure myself
And if I share another drink with you
Well I don't think that will help

And as the sun comes up
I'll be coming down
Don't think I'm gonna sleep too well
And if our time runs out
Don't you call my name
Chasing angels but you end up in hell
Chasing angels but you end up in hell

I think it's Sunday but I may be wrong
'Cause I am not keeping count
And when your world is tumblin' I'll be gone
Long before our fire burns out

And as the sun comes up
I'll be coming down
Don't think I'm gonna sleep too well
And if our time runs out
Don't you call my name
Chasing angels but you end up in hell
Chasing angels but you end up in hell

And as the sun comes up
I'll be coming down
Don't think I'm gonna sleep too well
And if our time runs out
Don't you call my name
Chasing angels but you end up in hell

And as the sun comes up
I'll be coming down
Don't think I'm gonna sleep too well
And if our time runs out
Don't you call my name
Chasing angels but you end up in hell
Chasing angels but you end up in hell
Chasing angels but you end up in hell
