I Am Not Afraid

Ron Pope

When it's dark but I can't sleep
I will wander towards my dreams with new direction
If it's cold and I'm alone
And I forget all that I know
Well I'll count my blessings

You will take until there's none
Then you'll search to find the crumbs and leave me wasted
You would see me lying there
And get the ones who used to care to turn their faces

And I said, "Oh
I am not afraid"
"Oh
I am not afraid"

Well the things that I believe
And the things that I can see are all confused now
I know emptiness and pain but I'm sure love must have a place
Somewhere the truth counts

Still I search to find the words
I scream until it hurts and no one hears me
So I breathe deep and start again
Turn my face into the wind and let my heart speak

And I said, "Oh
I am not afraid"
"Oh
I am not afraid"
"Oh
I am not afraid"
"Oh
I am not afraid"

Love will find a way
Love will find a way

When it's dark but I can't sleep
I will wander towards my dreams with new direction
If it's cold and I'm alone
And I forget all that I know
Well I'll count my blessings

And I said, "Oh
I am not afraid"
"Oh
I am not afraid"
"Oh
Love will find a way"
"Oh
I am not afraid"