

Let Me Go

Ron Pope

Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home

I don't really mind if you can't stay the night
That's alright by me
And you can make believe, pretend that I don't see
I sleep but never dream

And outside of this door, I know it's darker when you're standing all alone
But I could never stay to watch you fall from grace

Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home

The look upon your face, the way your feelings changed
Shook me to my knees
The fading afternoon, my thoughts of only you
I'm here but you don't see

And I'm not really sure if I'd be better off a hundred miles away
But I could never stay to watch you fall from grace

Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home

Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you let me go
Won't you drive me home
