Morphine

Ron Pope

I probably shouldn't say you make me feel this way
But I can't help myself when you're around
I took a lethal dose, so now I am a ghost
Floating through the hallways of your house

Before we met life was morphine
I couldn't feel, feel a damn thing

Sometimes I live in fear that you will disappear
So I pretend I do not care at all
But you call every bluff, do not betray my trust
And catch me as I try my best to fall

Before we met life was morphine
I couldn't feel, feel a damn thing

So here we are again, we masquerade as friends
Pretending for ourselves and no one else
'Cause everybody sees we're lying through our teeth
But you're the only medicine that helps

Before we met life was morphine
I couldn't feel, feel a damn thing

Before we met life was morphine
I couldn't feel, feel a damn thing
