

You Are That Someone

Ron Pope

You are that someone that I can't forget
I try to keep runnin', but you took my breath

I stopped asking our friends how you're doing
And that feels like progress, I guess
For a while I was scaring myself, thought nothing could help
Ran out of excuses
I forgot how it felt to feel good
Wish I could but I don't think I can 'cause

The bed's too big, night's too dark
Try to move on but it's just too hard

You are that someone that I can't forget
I try to keep runnin', but you took my breath

I would like to believe it gets easy
If not easy, at least not like this
I just wanna walk down the street, not watching my feet
Not wondering about where you sleep
Wish something could make me believe

But the bed's too big, night's too dark
Try to move on but it's just too hard

You are that someone that I can't forget
I try to keep runnin', but you took my breath

Escape you, replace you
I run for my life then I chase you
My hands shake, my arms ache
I can't take this nightmare coming true
Wish I could wake up to you

You are that someone that I can't forget
I try to keep runnin', but you took my breath
You are that someone, who broke me apart
It's hard to keep livin', 'cause you took my heart
