

Chasing Forever

Ron Sexsmith

Once I dreamed about
Being a part of the "Diamond Life"
Chasing after
The flash of cameras
And the spotlight
But now I'm chasing forever
I'm chasing forever
It's alright..
Lord knows I've tried
To no avail
Was chasing my tail
So I'm off
Chasing forever..
Once it dawned on me
What a song can grant you
I learned to write
In every songbook
On every piano
Eternal life
So now I'm chasing forever
On these scraps of paper
It gets lonely
With what's gone before me so daunting
It's haunt or be haunted
I'm off
Chasing forever
Always wondering to no avail
Wondering if I'm on the right trail.....
Once I dreamed about
Being a part of that crazy world
But dreams can taunt you
And fly off when they want to
Like a mockingbird
So now I'm chasing forever
I'm chasing forever
It's alright
As all through the night
I lay pondering..
Am I just wandering lost?
