

I've Got You

Ronan Keating

A thousand words, a hundred thoughts
I know you're there, and that just hurts me more
I'd rather us hurt than fall
Yeah, I've lost my way so many times
Without you behind me, it's breaking this heart of mine
But I'd rather us break tryin'

Why are we waiting for one more breath?
I'm gonna get in get in get in to this car
Drive through the lights and under the stars
Won't stop till I've got you
And I don't care, don't care, don't care what we said
Can't sleep for another night in this bed
Won't stop till I've got you

I got you babe, I got got you babe, got you babe

I hear your voice, you said those words
Come here my baby, it's time that we made it work
This distance makes it worse

Why are we waiting for one more breath?
I'm gonna get in get in get in to this car
Drive through the lights and under the stars
Won't stop till I've got you
And I don't care, don't care, don't care what we said
Can't sleep for another night in this bed
Won't stop till I've got you

I got you babe, I got got you babe
I got you babe, I got, got you babe
I got you babe, I got got you baby
I got you babe

It doesn't matter how long it takes us
I won't sleep I won't rest till it's you and me, you and me

I'm gonna get in, get in, get in to this car
Drive through the lights and under the stars
Won't stop till I've got you
And I don't care, don't care, don't care what we said
Can't sleep for another night in this bed
Won't stop till I've got you

I got you babe, I got got you babe
I got you babe, I got got you babe
I got you babe, I got got you babe
I got you baby
