The One

Ronan Keating

When you're lonely life's movin' slow
And the road you take has nowhere to go
I'll be the one, be the one
I'll be the one, be the one

When you're searchin' and you find someone
Never knowin' just what could have begun
I'll be the one, be the one
I'll be the one, be the one

And I'm, I'm so in love with how you feel
Feel like I'm goin' crazy
'Cause time is only ever standin' still
When you're in my arms lately

When you're growin' and you reach the heights
But you're still scared of the dark at night
I'll be the one, be the one
Always be the one

And now we're dancin' in circles, I'm lost in your eyes
Hopin' I'll stay lost for all of my life
So close your eyes, trust in me
'Cause I'll be guidin' your way

And I'm, I'm so in love with how you feel
Feel like I'm goin' crazy
'Cause time is only ever standin' still
When you're in my arms lately

'Cause I want your endless winter nights
To feel close when it's too cold outside
And we'll watch the snow fallin', trees growin'
I'll be by your side, yeah, I'll be the one, one

And I'm, I'm so in love with how you feel
Feel like I'm goin' crazy
'Cause time is only ever standin' still
When you're in my arms lately

When you're older and you're turning gray
And your last breath is slippin' away
I'll be the one, be the one
Still be the one, be the one
