

Good Bartender

Ronnie Dunn

Happy hour was a big let down
Runnin' hard at a night on the town
It's almost midnight and I still miss her
I need a good bartender

Hands of time are workin' way too slow
And I'm tryin' everything I know
I need help from someone to forget her
I need a good bartender

Oh, oh, oh, oh, one with a heavy hand
Someone who knows the needs of a heart-broke man
Oh, oh, oh, oh, hey, man, I'm hurtin' here
I need more than this ice just to disappear
The one thing I came to forget tonight still hurts
Oh, man, I miss her
I need a good bartender

Neon's got that perfect good-time glow
The band's playing every party song they know
The stage is set, oh, for a big time bender
I need a good bartender

Oh, oh, oh, oh, one with a heavy hand
Someone who knows the needs of a heart-broke man
Oh, oh, oh, oh, hey, man, I'm hurtin' here
I need more than this ice just to disappear
The one thing I came to forget tonight still hurts
Oh, man, I miss her
I need a good bartender

Need someone who's felt like me
Who's seen rock bottom from the driver's seat

Oh, oh, oh, oh, one with a heavy hand
Someone who knows the needs of a heart-broke man
Oh, oh, oh, oh, hey, man, I'm hurtin' here
I need more than this ice just to disappear
The one thing I came to forget tonight still hurts
Oh, man, I miss her
I need a good bartender

Oh, I need a good bartender
