

If Love Ever Comes My Way Again

Ronnie Dunn

Another whiskey-colored sunset going down
Out here on the hurtin' side of town
Got me swearin' I won't be the fool I've been
If love ever comes my way again

Why did I say good-bye? I know I was wrong
Why did I save my pride? Now my good thing's gone
I won't make the same mistake I made back then
If love ever comes my way again

Guess I could go and lose myself in the neon lights
Ask a girl to dance but it won't feel right
I'll just have to go on lonely until then
If love ever comes my way again

Why did I say good-bye? I know I was wrong
Why did I save my pride? Now my good thing's gone
I won't make the same mistake I made back then
If love ever comes my way again

I won't make the same mistake I made back then
If love ever comes my way
Whoa, if love ever comes my way
If love ever comes my way again
