

Why

Ronnie Milsap

My heart is alive with the love that I feel for you babe
Now you wanna leave it behind
You don't realize that my love it is real for you babe
We could have a love so fine

Oh now you're leavin' me cold like a sinkin' sun across the sky
One thing before you go, I just thought that I
Would try and ask you why? Ohhh

I gave you my heart and my love now you're watching my soul
Ahh but it just can't be, no
You come and tell me today that your love has grown cold
Ahh this I can't believe

Oh now you're leavin' me cold like a sinkin' sun across the sky
One thing before you go, I just thought that I
Would try and ask you why?

Oh now you're leavin' me cold like a sinkin' sun across the sky
One thing before you go, I just thought that I
Would try and ask you why?
