

Let It Be a Long Time

Roo Panes

Couldn't we stay here just a little longer in paradise
Before we get back to the rough and the tumble of rolling dice?
For the deep breath in the breathing
For the sake of always leaving
Let us stay a long time

Cause nowadays you'll find me smelling the morning flowers
Trying to find some kind of secret time in between the hours
For the hand you've found worth holding
For a sky that's always golden
Let it stay a long time

Now it's you and I
Let it be a long time

Underneath your eyes
And the sunset sky
Why would you even go
Why would you even try
Just let it be a long time
Let it be a long time
Let it be a long time

Now it's you and I
Let it be a long time
