Warrior

Roo Panes

Are you done yet, have you had enough?
No, you've got something in your blood
They can kick you, they can beat you
But your heart belongs to love

Oh you're a warrior
Oh you're a warrior

I knew from day one, it feels like everything
Has been trying to rob me of your innocence
You gotta hold on, oh don't let it go
Oh it's the heart of life's magnificence

I sing, I'm a warrior
Oh, I 'm a warrior

Oh, it's never gonna happen
They'll never bring you down
You're walking into victory
Even in your darkest hour
You used to hold it in
But it's time to let it out
All that joy that's hid within you
Oh it's time to hear the sound

Sing, I'm a warrior
Sing, I'm a warrior
