

Eight Eight Keys

Rookie of the Year

If you ever fall in love again
Will rain freeze ice in you head
If you fall in love again
With the light of the moon
Let it follow you home

Come down
Come down, until the sun burns you away
Come down
Come down, until the sun burns you away

If you ever fall in love again
Don't let me know about it
If you all in love again
Just wipe you away
Make me forget you

Come down
Come down, until the sun burns you away
Come down
Come down, until the sun burns you away

Eighty eight keys, play my mood
Eighty eight keys, for you
That's all I can do

Come down
Come down, until the sun burns you away
Come down
Come down, until the sun burns you away

If you ever fall in love again
Feel like music, instead
If you all in love again
Like the sound of a gun
Our love will be dead
