

Having to Let Go

Rookie of the Year

the winter is rising and you're not here.
sweetly leave. scarlet red.
your moon is dark and i, i can't sleep.
your moon is dark.
your moon is dark and we can't sleep.
these conversations kill.
you put me down for the last time.
you had me and point plank range.
square between the eyes now.
you let me go, your feelings changed,
but i can't help mine.
i'm having to let go.
this winter is rising and i'm not here.
so just leave! don't fool ourselves.
don't fool ourselves and i was sweetly rejected
and i sweetly fell.
fell through your hands
and there's a melody that i long to here, that goes like this...
