

Since I Left Your World

Rookie of the Year

wake up, alone it's been a few years since I left your world try out, new things and tell myself I'll keep it all just clean and you say
stay, stay where you want to be I don't wanna be around you no more, its just what I need
and you say
stay, stay where you want to be I can't get used to you looking after me, and leave

'cause you say, say, say you don't go and you're gone
'cause you say, say, say
all the love in the world will never replace you
it's what you do, that's what you do let go, your face let myself know it will never be the same

and you say
stay, stay where you want to be maybe I'll come around here one more time, if it's what I need
and you say
stay, stay where you want to be I'm are your front door, waiting for you to let me in, please

'cause you say, say, say
all the love in the world will never replace you
it's what you do, it's what you do it's what you do
it's what you do
it's what you do to me

'cause you say, say, say
all the love in the world will never replace you
it's what you do, it's what you do
it's what you do
it's what you do
