

Day 2 Day

Rooney

Did you ever really love me?
Were you burning up
Or was it just someone, someone worth giving up?
And now you're just someone who I thought about
But I still don't understand what it's all about

Ain't it strange these days all feel the same
And everyone will stop to play this game
Maybe it's all supposed to be this way
Living my life and loving you day to day

Did you ever really want me to be next to you?
Were you pretending to be someone new
'Cause you're acting like someone I wish I could forget
But I can't get away, get you out of my head

Ain't it strange these days all feel the same
And everyone will stop to play this game
Maybe it's all supposed to be this way
Living my life and loving you day to day

Well now I'm just someone, never looking back
Maybe it's one day to the next day
And that's the fast track

Ain't it strange these days all feel the same
And everyone will stop to play this game
Maybe it's all supposed to be this way
Living my life and loving you day to day

Living my life day to day
Just living my life day to day
Living my life day to day
I'm just living my life day to day
Ain't it strange these days feel the same
Everyone will stop to play this game
Living my life, loving you day to day
Just living my life day to day
