

Echoes

Roosevelt

I'm running away
Cuz you're on my mind
Yeah, I need to get out of this
Out of your sight
You're beginning to play
The tricks on my mind
Can we find a way out of this
Got to win the fight

When time has no meaning
Lost in a feeling
Where do we go from here

Where's your devotion
Strangest emotion
You made it reappear

I still hear the echoes
Feels like we're slipping away
But maybe tonight we can
Leave the past behind

I still hear the echoes
Feels like we're slipping away
Yeah, maybe tonight we can
Leave it all behind

I remember a time
With you by my side
Bringing back all the memory
Start to fall apart
Committed a crime
As dark as the night
You know you were the remedy
To my broken heart

When time has no meaning
Lost in a feeling

Where's your devotion
Strangest emotion
You made it reappear

I still hear the echoes
Feels like we're slipping away
But maybe tonight we can
Leave the past behind

I still hear the echoes
Feels like we're slipping away
Yeah maybe tonight we can
Leave it all behind

In the haze of the sun
Don't fall behind
Let's make this right

Back to where it begun
'Cause in these golden lights
We'll come alive

In the haze of the sun
