

Lovers

Roosevelt

Here I go again
I never wanted anybody else
Now I realize
Another year's gone to waste
Give yourself a chance
And leave your broken heart right at the door
Comes with no surprise
That you keep running away

You know the world keeps turning around
Just take me home, nowhere to be found
We're lovers tonight
We're lovers tonight

I'll take you high again
Yeah, you're the one who's talking in my sleep
We can just pretend
And walk away, out of sight
It's our only chance
I'll take you on a trip, you've never been
Just hold me till the end
And let me guide through the night

You know the world keeps turning around
Just take me home, nowhere to be found
We're lovers tonight
We're lovers tonight
We're lovers tonight
We're lovers tonight
